CREW CUT + HOT TOWEL - $25

The crew cut is similar to a "buzz" cut but slightly longer in length. This classic style looks good on almost any guy. When asking your barber for a crew cut, make sure to indicate the type of fade you want on the sides and just how much length needs to be left on top. Enjoy a crew cut from your First-Class Barber with the relaxing, finishing touch of a hot towel.

SHAPE-UP (REG) - $15

The quicker, simpler approach your barber can take for your shape-up (neck-centric) to get you ready and out of the door as fast as possible!

SHAPE-UP (DELUXE) - $30

The shape-up hairstyle, also sometimes called a "line-up" or an "edge-up" is a way to shape the haircut. This shaping involves straightening of the hairline. In fact, there is usually no actual cutting. The barber will use outliners (clippers) or a razor to make neat lines around the client's haircut. Usually, the haircut will be outlined around the head, including the area behind the ears, the lower part of the head and the sideburns. If there is any stray hair beyond the shaped-up hairline, the barber will shave it off.

FADE CUT + HOT TOWEL - $40

A fade essentially means a transition of lengths and color on the back & sides of the hair. This means that the hair is not all buzzed to one length and has some sort of variation of lengths blended in together. The level of the fade - taper, low, mid or high is defined by how high the shortest part of the hair goes up the head and starts to transition into another longer length. A fade can essentially be split up into 4 key categories based on how high the fade goes up the head: taper, low, mid, or high. Talk to your barber to see what they think for your face shape, the style you're going for, as well as your lifestyle. Different fade heights will work with different face shapes and different styles. Enjoy a fade cut from your First Class Barber with the relaxing, finishing touch of a hot towel.

After bringing your hair down to the scalp with clippers, we wrap your head in hot towels and prep with the finest pre-shave oils and creams. Hot lather and a straight razor head shave are finished off with post-shave balm and a cool towel for your comfort.

REGULAR CUT - $40

Have a hairstyle in mind before visiting your barber. If possible, research the different types of haircuts and find a picture that matches the style you want to show us during your visit. For example: If you're asking for a fade, know which type or number (e.g. guard size refers to length) that you prefer. Decide how you want to style your hair on top. What hairstyle you pick will determine the length of your cut and what parts of your hair need to be layered, thinned, straightened or shortened. Finally, select how to trim your neckline. Your neckline can be cut in a few ways - blocked, rounded, or tapered. This is a great place to start!
